On July 6, 1882, twenty acres of land was purchased from the US government by three men for the purpose of logging. In 1937, a building was constructed here on Townline Lake. Although it may have been known by some as the Purple Poodle, it was officially called the Edgewater Inn. It was destroyed by fire in 1952, but was reconstructed and continued to operate as the Edgewater Inn until 1958. At which time Lee Mayer converted it to a dinner club and it became known as Lee's Fireside. In 1989, Earl and Margo Morey became the owners and renamed the restaurant to the Fireside Supper Club. The Morey's ran the supper club for nearly 30 years and developed a reputation of high-quality fine dining. Now, Eric and Jennifer Blomdahl, owners since 2018, want to continue that reputation for years to come. The Blomdahl's and their staff hope you enjoy your dining experience and make the Fireside Supper Club a family favorite!

All dinners include assorted crackers; garden salad with choice of dressing; cup of soup; choice of potato, wild rice blend, or mixed vegetables (excluded with pasta dinners and Lighter Fare); dinner roll and mini muffin.
